Level 3

On one very gloomy day in Russia two nine year old's ran as fast and as far away as they could. it was the first day of the war in Russia many people fled but didn't make it. these were brave kids. All though it was tough going through this. there names were Manda and Kasti they were both boy's, infact they were were good freinds.

This is were the story start's.

Manda cryed to Kasti "will there be a big bomb" he new what he wanted to say but he was to scared. "unforchantly yes"Manda sobbed again almost crying.

what will happen if the bomb spreads. we will be okay we will fled the country find a place to stay at. we will go far enough. It will be okay.

after three days they had traveled far not far enough. it had been a hard day for them. not very much water or food. ther were occasional rivers and creeks. they had walked so far that they were reaching big sand lands.

Up ahead they could here gun shoots. they saw a tunnel with a train coming through. I thought to my self this is the time. "Manda when the train comes along jump on the side." "Ready three two one JUMP" they jumped on and had been holding on for ages untill the train made a stop to a lair like a jail. Solders got off the train armed with wepons. Manda and Kasti hid behind a crate. "Hey" Manda", I will pounce on that solder they are the one's that invaded our village".

Kasti jumped on the solder got his gun and shot all the gards nere. The boys walked down the pale cobal stone floor.

Manda looked over a gate and saw people in sell's infact he new some of them they were from his village. Manda whispered "we need to save them". So they went back and got the gards keys. But then he saw his parents he tried to unlock the gate but it wouldn't work. " They ran down the hallway they saw more armed gards they ran in and shot them. They desperedly opened draws in search of all the keys. They finnaly found the box of keys. They ran with the keys and unlooked all the ceils.

they ran down to the train with everybody folowing him saying thank you Manda and Kasti thank you.

Ten years later
the people of the little Russian town had rebuilt all the houses. There life was much better now.
